

You Must Be

Words by
ALLISON BOLEY

Music by
ALLISON BOLEY and MIKE STARGEL

By what means did nature evolve to your will
And before you expanded our time, what expanse did you fill

We fall at your pow'r
Your ways are not ours

I know you breathed life in a figure of sand
And angels and kings could not hold back your plan
The more that I know the more I understand
You must be the Great I Am

How do you grieve when we first from you hide
And who can explain heaven's state on the day Jesus died

You frustrate the wise
Just to open small eyes

I know you breathed life in a figure of sand
And angels and kings could not hold back your plan
The more that I know the more I understand
You must be the Great I Am

I Am, can it be
You're living in me

I know you breathed life in a figure of sand
And angels and kings could not hold back your plan
The more that I know the more I understand
You must be the Great I Am

You glory in salvaging all that I do
And tomorrow's no more than a memory to you
The longer I live the more I know it's true
You must be the Great I Am

You must be the Great I Am
My God, you're the Great I Am
